

Ivelyn J. Gomez

32-44 82nd street * East Elmhurst, N.Y., 11370 * 347-761-6145 * igomez1@binghamton.edu

Education

Binghamton University Binghamton, NY

August 2015 - Present

- BS in Computer Science
- Current GPA: 3.34/4.0

Francis Lewis High School Queens, NY
2015

September 2012- June

- Excelled in 5 Advanced Placement Courses
- Enrolled in Honors Classes for all other courses
- Participated in College Now CUNY program
- Actively involved in JROTC and Drill Team
- GPA: 95.97/100.0

Relevant Extracurriculars

Girls Who Code Manhattan, N.Y

July 2017 - Present

Summer Intern Teaching Assistant

- Chosen from nationwide pool to help teach technical skills in intensive summer immersion program for high school girls
- Helped teach coding skills in languages including C++, Javascript, Python, C and HTML
- Collaborated with the teaching staff to encourage young women to develop skills in networking and computer science field
- Incorporation with IBM and helped organize workshops with strong female leaders from the company
- Participated 40 hours/ week

HackBU Club Binghamton, NY

January 2015 - Present

- Attend weekly meetings with presentations ranging on multiple languages such as HTML and JavaScript
- Free codes and interact with other students and their own programming projects
- Network with guest lecturers from different corporations such as Microsoft and Google

Girls Who Code Manhattan, N.Y

June 2014- August 2014

Summer Intern

- Chosen from nationwide pool to develop technical skills in intensive immersion program
- Deepened coding skills in languages including C++, Javascript, Python, C and HTML
- Collaborated in a team to develop an app, all the way from design to implementation and testing
- Obtained perspective from female leaders on how to succeed in a new industry
- Participated 35 hours/ week

Early Explorers NYPD (115th PCT.) Queens, N.Y.

February 2010- August 2016

Lieutenant

- Commanded drill protocol and taught protocol to new members
- Implemented decision making while immersed in high pressure scenarios such as abuse
- Volunteered in different activities ranging from park cleanup to feeding the elderly
- Graduated from Youth Police academy, winning first place in drill competition
- Participated 2 hours/week during school year, 20 hours/week minimum during summer

Army JROTC (Francis Lewis High School/ Long Island City High School) Queens, NY

2011-2013

Platoon Leader; 1st Lieutenant

- Learned and implemented leadership skills
- Competed in Drill Competition first year with Drill Team
- Participated in JROTC Cadet Leadership Challenge camp over the summer
- Led a 25 person class ranging from drill protocol to physical training

Global Kids (Francis Lewis High School) Queens, NY

2011-2012

- Worked as a team and performed community service activity such as bake sales and food drives

Experience

Binghamton University Binghamton, N.Y

January 2016-Present

Space Supervisor

- Monitor the Silent Study Space and keep order

Binghamton University Binghamton, N.Y

August 2016-October 2016

Student Worker

- Prepared and served food at separate stations at the dining hall and cleaned when closing

Skills

Fluent in Spanish, English and French, Computer Programming, Proficient in Microsoft and Mac Software upkeep, participates in Hackathons such as BigRed